

Meta Ray-Ban Glasses Description

Privacy Analysis of Augmented Reality Glasses

1 Hardware Components

- Camera
Located at the front on the top left corner
Ultra-wide 12 MP
Photo: 3024 x 4032 px
Video: 1080px +

- LEDs

Indicator LED

Located at the front on the top right corner

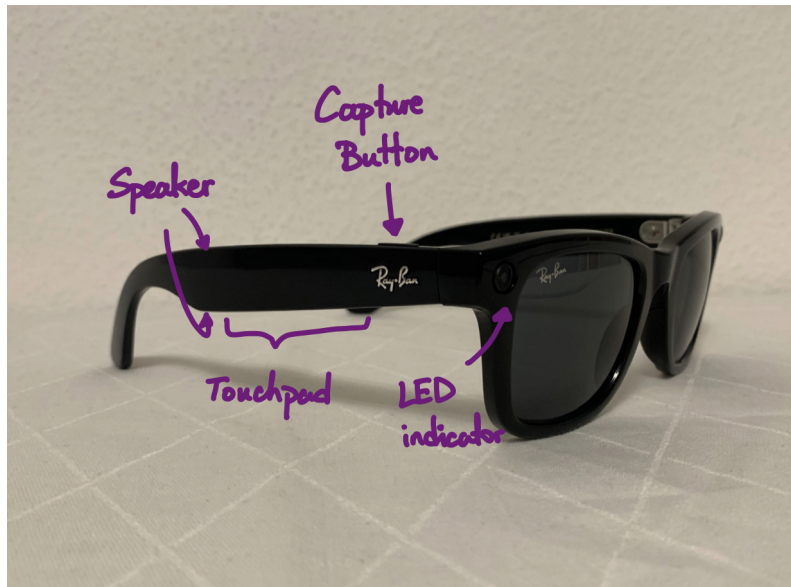

Lights up (white) to indicate to others when a photo/video is being taken

Notification LED

Located at the inner right side of the glasses for the user with the basic colors:
Blinking Red - Powering off

Blinking White to Solid Green - Powering on
Blinking Blue - Pairing
Blinking Orange - Low battery (also used during factory reset)
Blinking White - Time almost up for video recording or when taking a photo
Pulses White - Using voice commands

- Speaker
Located at the end of the glasses around the ears, can be seen on both sides at the top and bottom of the back part of the arm
- Microphone
Five-mic system
- Touchpad
Located on the right side of the glasses, at the arm
Slide front and back to control music and volume
Tap to start/pause playing music
- Capture Button
Located on the top of the glasses on the right side, at the front part of the arm
Short click to take a picture
Long click to record a video, then short click to stop recording

- Power Toggle
Located on the inner left corner of the glasses
When you see the red dot, it means the glasses are turned off

- Charging case
Charging cases uses USB-C to recharge
The charging case charges the phone at the nose bridge
Rechargeable lithium-ion battery If fully charged, claims to be able to be used for 36h, and to recharge requires roughly 3 and a half hours
Has a button at the back for pairing
Has a light in the front to indicate:
Blinking Blue - Pairing
Solid Green - Fully charged
Solid Orange - Battery not full
Blinking Orange - Battery low
- Sensors
Located at the inner part at the arm of the glasses
Detects when you put on the glasses, and will make a small vibration and sound
- Processor
Qualcomm Snapdragon AR1 Gen 1
The processor has tasks including managing the sensors, handling image processing, and providing AI capabilities
- Camera Storage
32GB

2 Connectivity

- Wi-Fi 6
Operates on 2.4 GHz and 5GHz frequency bands
- Bluetooth 5.2
Operates on 2.4 GHz frequency bands

3 Operating System

Requires a minimum of

- iOS 14.4
- Android 10

4 Features

- Media Capture
- Integrated Audio
- Voice Assist
- Touchpad / Buttons
- Wireless connectivity
- Privacy / Security
 - Claims to have end-to-end encryption
- LED indicators

5 Possible Interactions

- Media
 - Take photo or short videos
 - Max video length can vary depending on preference (15, 30, 60 seconds, or 3 minutes)
 - Live stream to either Facebook or Instagram
 - Live stream can last up to 30 minutes
- Interaction with the companion app, Meta View
 - Photos/Videos are imported onto the app
 - Can also change settings/preferences on the glasses
- Audio / Call
 - Listen to music and can change track or volume either with Meta or on the touchpad
 - Music can be played from Amazon music or Spotify
 - Have phone calls with others
- Voice assist interactions
 - Say "Hey Meta, ...", e.g. "Hey Meta, what is the battery percentage?"
 - Preferences can be made on the companion app
 - Note that Meta is also able to send messages on either WhatsApp or Messenger
 - Meta is also able to call or pick up calls
 - Meta is also able to translate shit

6 Additional Info

If there are any uncertainties regarding the usage/functionalities of the glasses, one can always go to the home page in the Meta app where they explain different aspects of the glasses. For example, different LEDs or touch commands can be found after scrolling all the way to the bottom and click on 'Learn about gestures & LEDs'.