

Meta Ray-Ban Glasses Description

Privacy Analysis of Augmented Reality Glasses

1 Hardware Components

- Camera
 - Located at the front on the top left corner
 - Ultra-wide 12 MP
 - Photo: 3024 x 4032 px
 - Video: 1080px +
- LEDs
 - One is located at the front on the top right corner, which is to indicate to others that a photo/video is being taken. Note that your photo won't be taken if this light is covered.
 - One is located at the inner right side of the glasses
 - Red - powering off
 - Flashing white - powering on
 - Green - powered on
 - Blue - pairing
 - Orange - during factory reset

- Speaker
Located at the end of the glasses around the ears, can be seen on both sides at the top and bottom of the back part of the arm
Sound (at max volume at least) can be heard by others close by if in quiet indoor environments
- Microphone
Five-mic system
- Touchpad
Located on the right side of the glasses, at the arm
Slide front and back to control music and volume
Tap to start/pause playing music
- Capture Button
Located on the top of the glasses on the right side, at the front part of the arm
Short click to take a picture
Long click to record a video, then short click to stop recording

- Power Toggle
Located on the inner left corner of the glasses. When you see the red dot, it means the glasses are turned off.

- Charging case
Charging case uses USB-C to recharge
The charging case charges the phone at the nose bridge Rechargeable lithium-ion battery. If fully charged, claims to be able to be used for 36h, and to recharge requires roughly 3 and a half hours

Has a button at the back for pairing

Has a light in the front to indicate:

Blue - trying to pair

Green - Fully charged

Orange - Battery not full

- Sensors
 - Located at the inner part at the arm of the glasses
 - Detects when you put on the glasses, and will make a small vibration and sound
- Processor
 - Qualcomm Snapdragon AR1 Gen 1
 - The processor has tasks including managing the sensors, handling image processing, and providing AI capabilities
- Camera Storage
 - 32GB

2 Connectivity

- Wi-Fi 6
 - Operates on 2.4 GHz and 5GHz frequency bands
- Bluetooth 5.2
 - Operates on 2.4 GHz frequency bands

3 Operating System

Requires a minimum of

- iOS 14.4
- Android 10

4 Features

- Media Capture
- Integrated Audio
- Voice Assist
- Touchpad / Buttons
- Wireless connectivity
- Privacy / Security
 - Claims to have end-to-end encryption
- LED indicators

5 Possible Interactions

- Media
 - Take photo or short videos
 - Max video length can vary depending on preference (15, 30, 60 seconds)
 - Live stream to either Facebook or Instagram
 - Live stream can last up to 30 minutes
- Interaction with the companion app, Meta View
 - Photos/Videos are imported onto the app
 - Can also change settings/preferences on the glasses

- Audio / Call
Listen to music and can change track or volume either with Meta or on the touchpad
Music can be played from Amazon music or Spotify
Have phone calls with others
- Voice assist interactions
Say "Hey Meta, ...", e.g. "Hey Meta, what is the battery percentage?"
Preferences can be made on the companion app
Note that Meta is also able to send messages on either WhatsApp or Messenger
Meta is also able to call or pick up calls
Meta is also able to translate shit

6 Additional Information

Link to set up (pair) the glasses to a device: <https://www.meta.com/en-gb/help/smart-glasses/articles/ray-ban-meta/set-up-ray-ban-meta-smart-glasses/>
If the glasses are already paired, you need to factory reset the glasses to pair to another device.
The instructions can be found here: <https://www.meta.com/en-gb/help/smart-glasses/articles/ray-ban-meta/factory-reset-ray-ban-meta-smart-glasses/>. When you are pressing the capture button 5 times for the factory reset, tap 5 times consecutively really fast.